

A Few Thoughts for Lent (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from A Few Thoughts for Lent
The present age, these passing days, how full they are of intense and unwholesome pressure! It is a period of overwrought and overcrowded activity in every sphere of effort connected with secular and temporal interests. And how is it with us who profess to be Christians; are we too driven with the wind and tossed, and under the lash and spur of this worlds perplexities?About the Publisher
Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com
This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.
