

The Sisters: Murder by the Bayou

Nadine Guliano has returned to Tallula, Louisiana after being exiled to Waco, Texas for the past nineteen years. She comes home to help bury her sisters' husband, James, the most hated man in Tallula, who has been murdered. In this hilarious romantic mystery, L.L. Lee introduces the youngest of The Sisters, a thirty-four year old psychiatrist, who along with 100 or so other people in Tallula, have good reason to want James dead. Nadine falls in love with Doctor Steve Rose, who may or may not have Mafia connections and who may or may not be the murderer. Nadine's rocky road to romance is riddled with misadventures as she reunites with her wacky older sisters, her domineering Sicilian mother, her rogue brother and her romantic rival, niece, T.J. Marino.
